Membership details are kept confidential at all times. It is optional to give personal information requested.

The information is intended for the purpose of creating better support and services for Coeliacs.

The Coeliac Society is compiling a database of professionals willing to be contacted by the media or ourselves for interview (television or radio) or comment. This will enable us to promote public awareness of Coeliac Disease, including the symptoms and issues that affect our members. Details would never be passed on without prior permission from those on this file.

If you would like to be part of this media file please tick this box.
